Date: 12 March 2019

Note from Mrs Durrant

Dear parents/carers,

My apologies for the delay in getting this newsletter to you. We have had multiple power cuts recently, however we are up now and running – fingers crossed!

We had an amazing Book week last week with the grand finale of dress-up day on Friday. The costumes were amazing and very imaginative. Thank you to all of you who managed to come to one of the Booky Breakfasts or who supported the book fair (which took place after school on Friday). All photos from last week are on the school website or the Facebook page so please take a look.

We are currently looking for full-time Midday Supervisors, so if you are interested then please visit the Havering vacancies website at <https://ats-haveringschools.jobsgopublic.com/vacancies/view/91658>

Don't forget this Friday 15 March we are celebrating Comic Relief Red Nose Day where children can come into school with the craziest hairstyles. Children are required to wear school uniform on the day, however they can be as creative as they like with their hair.

Have a good week!

Kind regards

*THE NEXT MEETING OF THE JAMES OGLETHORPE
PRIMARY SCHOOL PARENTS ASSOCIATION
(JOPSPA) WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE
SCHOOL CONFERENCE ROOM ON THURSDAY
21 MARCH 2019 AT 9AM*

Parent Helpers

We are still looking for volunteer Parent Helpers to help our children with their reading.

If you are able to spare an hour per week to help, then please contact the school office.

We will be holding another information meeting for anyone who is interested on Tuesday 19 March 2019 from 2.30-3pm.

We hope to see you there!
