Note from Mrs Durrant

Dear parents/carers,

Welcome back everyone! We hope you had a lovely Easter break.

It's been a great first week back with attendance rewards for our children who had 96% attendance, and the school disco kindly organised by JOPSPA.

It's a short but busy half term with our Y2 and Y6 SATs taking place, so we wish all our children the best of luck.

It's a lovely bonus having the Bank holiday weekend so let's hope the sun shines!

Enjoy and we will see you on Tuesday 7 May.

H. Durrant

SUMMER TIME

Over the next few weeks as the weather warms up please ensure that you have applied sun cream to your child and that they are appropriately dressed - summer uniform options can be found on the school website

<http://jamesoglethorpe.havering.sch.uk/parents/school-uniform/>

Water bottles are essential so please ensure your child has one in school.

JOPS GOT TALENT

WE HAVE LAUNCHED SOME NEW DISPLAYS AROUND THE SCHOOL OF OUR CHILDRENS WORK EACH WEEK.

HOWEVER, WE ALSO WANT TO MAKE A FEATURE OF OUR PUPILS ACHIEVEMENTS OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL – MEDALS, CERTIFICATES, NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS AND PHOTOS OF SPECIAL MILESTONES (MOVING UP IN BROWNIES, MAKING THEIR OWN BED, ETC).

THIS SHOULD BE SOMETHING THEY HAVE WORKED HARD FOR AND ARE PROUD OF.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING FROM JANUARY 2019 FORWARDS THAT YOUR CHILD WOULD LIKE TO BRING IN TO DISPLAY THEN WE WOULD LOVE TO SEE IT.

Polling Station

Another reminder that it has been confirmed that we will have to be used as a Polling Station on Thursday 23rd May, so the school will be shut on that day.

Unfortunately, this will mean that our Thursday extra-curricular clubs will not be going ahead on that day either. We will contact parents shortly with revised arrangements for MegaCamps Football and Musical Theatre.

We are sorry for the short notice and inconvenience but we had no choice. We have asked for the school not to be used as a polling station moving forward next year.
